

Pennsylvania State Rabbit Breeders Association

To whom it may concern,

Every year Pennsylvania holds the State Farm Show in Harrisburg. This is the premier agricultural event and showcase for 4-H and FFA in the state. This is such an important event that the state legislature passed section 1329 of Act 35 which requires schools to excuse students exhibiting in 4-H at the show and to categorize this as a school excused absence. The dates this year are from Friday January 8th until Saturday January 18th. The youth listed below is registered for 4-H competition.

We would ask that _____ be excused from school, as a school excused absence in compliance with section 1329 of act 35, to participate in 4-H competition at the PA State Farm Show.
